Well Karen all that I can remember about you
is all your wild parties!
I'll remember you in chorus class. (4th period) you got to sit with the two best altos.
(Paula and me!) Remember when we didn't want you to vote in chorus cause
you were voting for "you-

Hi Karen,
Well, I know
how to play face it all in a hand, in a minute, all that stuff, all that

"All the World's a Stage"

"All the world's a stage," Shakespeare wrote, "and all the men and women merely players." All of us have roles to play in the life of Hinsdale Township High School. The role each of us takes is largely up to us. Our major role is student, but the portrayal by each of us individually as a student is strengthened and broadened by the other roles we play, whether as officers or active members of activities. The role each person writes, directs, and acts for himself, put together with the roles of all the others, makes up the final production. As in a play, the more real and genuine each character is, the more successful the whole endeavor is.

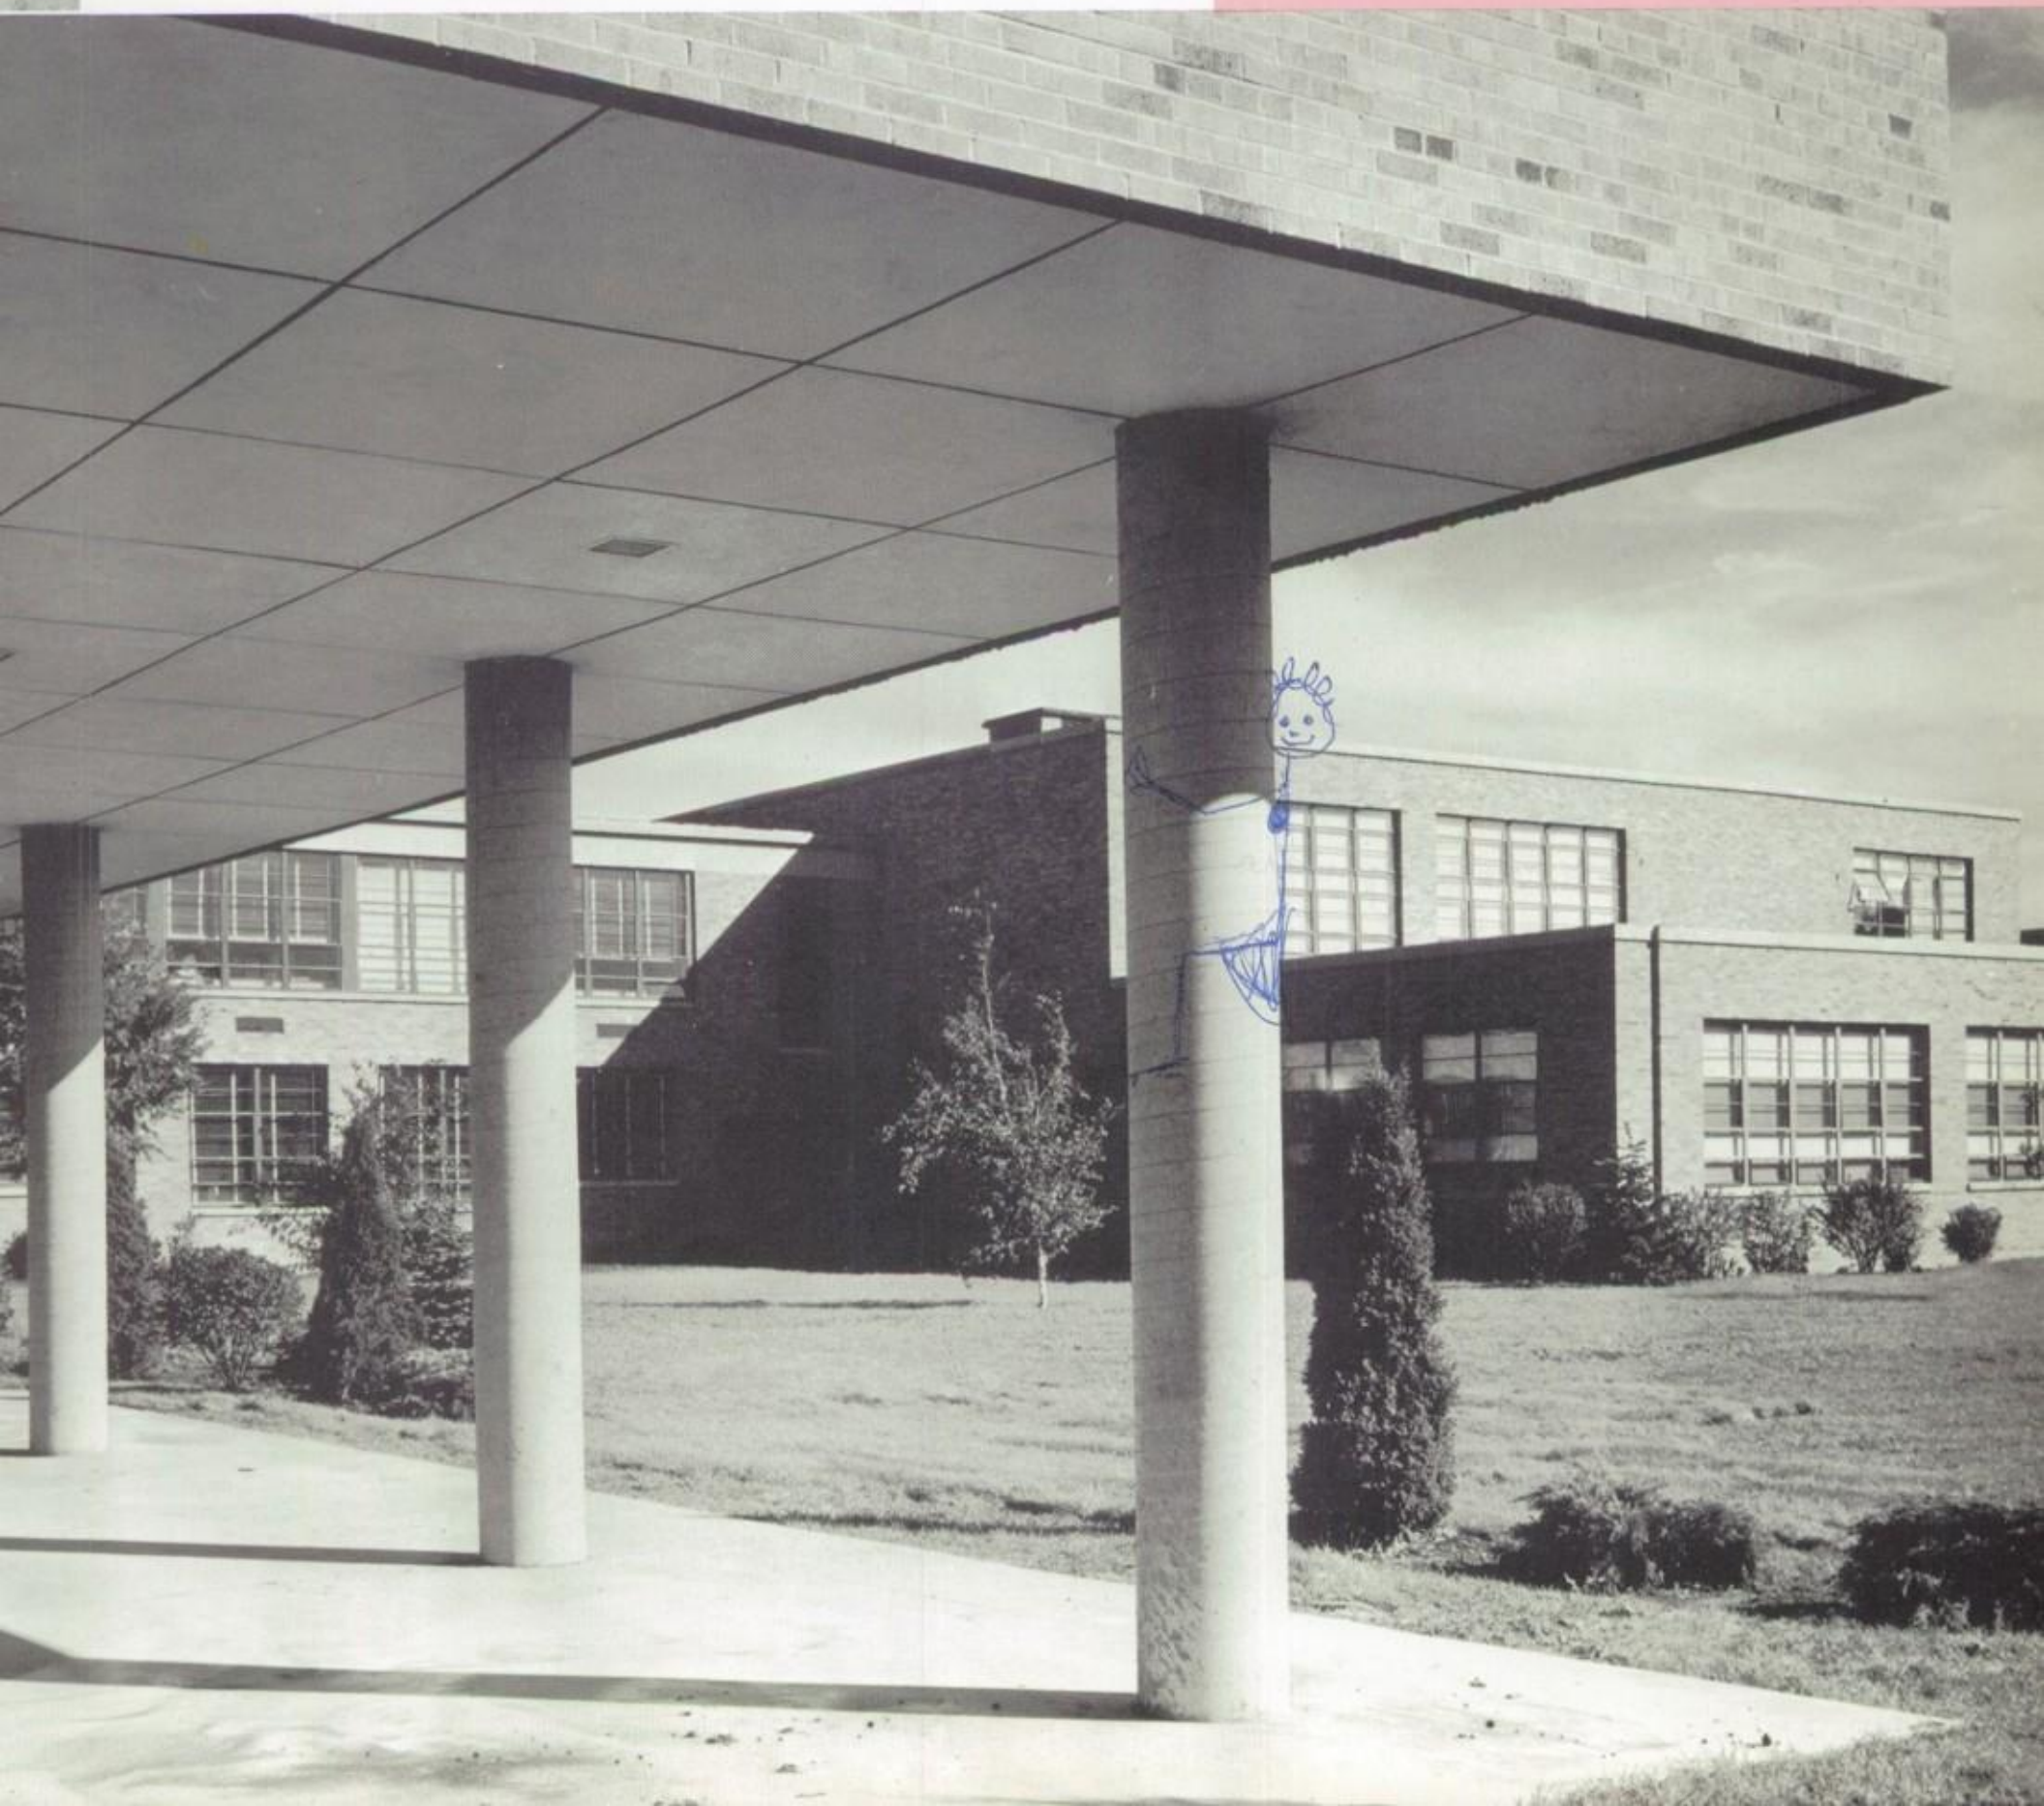

At the end of the year we
We've had a lot of fun in operation see ya.
Good luck with all the boys.
SUE
64'

The scene at Hinsdale has been completed with the addition of the auditorium, and this is its first full year of use. Each of the students at Hinsdale knows his part; the faculty directs; and El Diablo presents a portrait of the finished piece:

H.T.H.S.

A Play in Three Acts

Presented at Hinsdale Township High School 1961—62
by the student body and faculty.

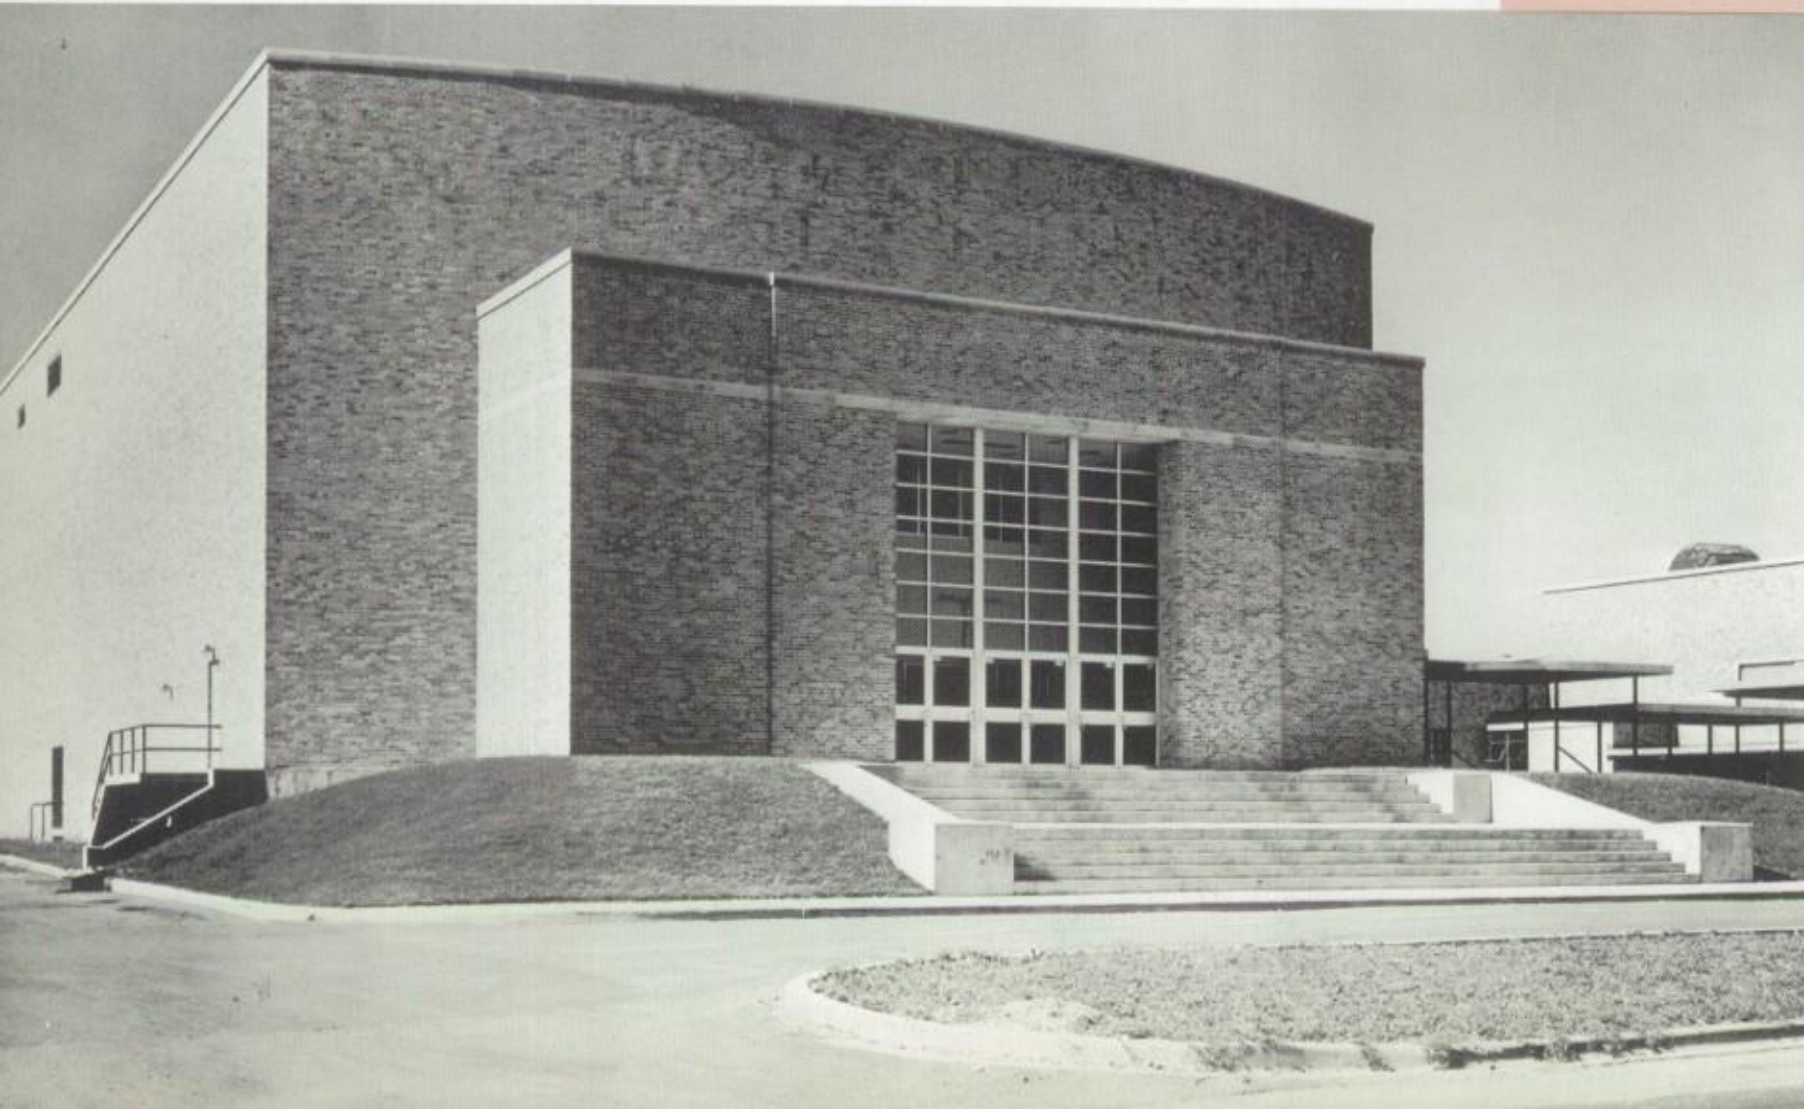

Act I: Act I takes place in the classrooms after school hours. Top performances are given by the officers of the clubs and activities, who are ably backed by hundreds of students in supporting roles. Participation by a large percentage of the audience makes this act vital and highly interesting.

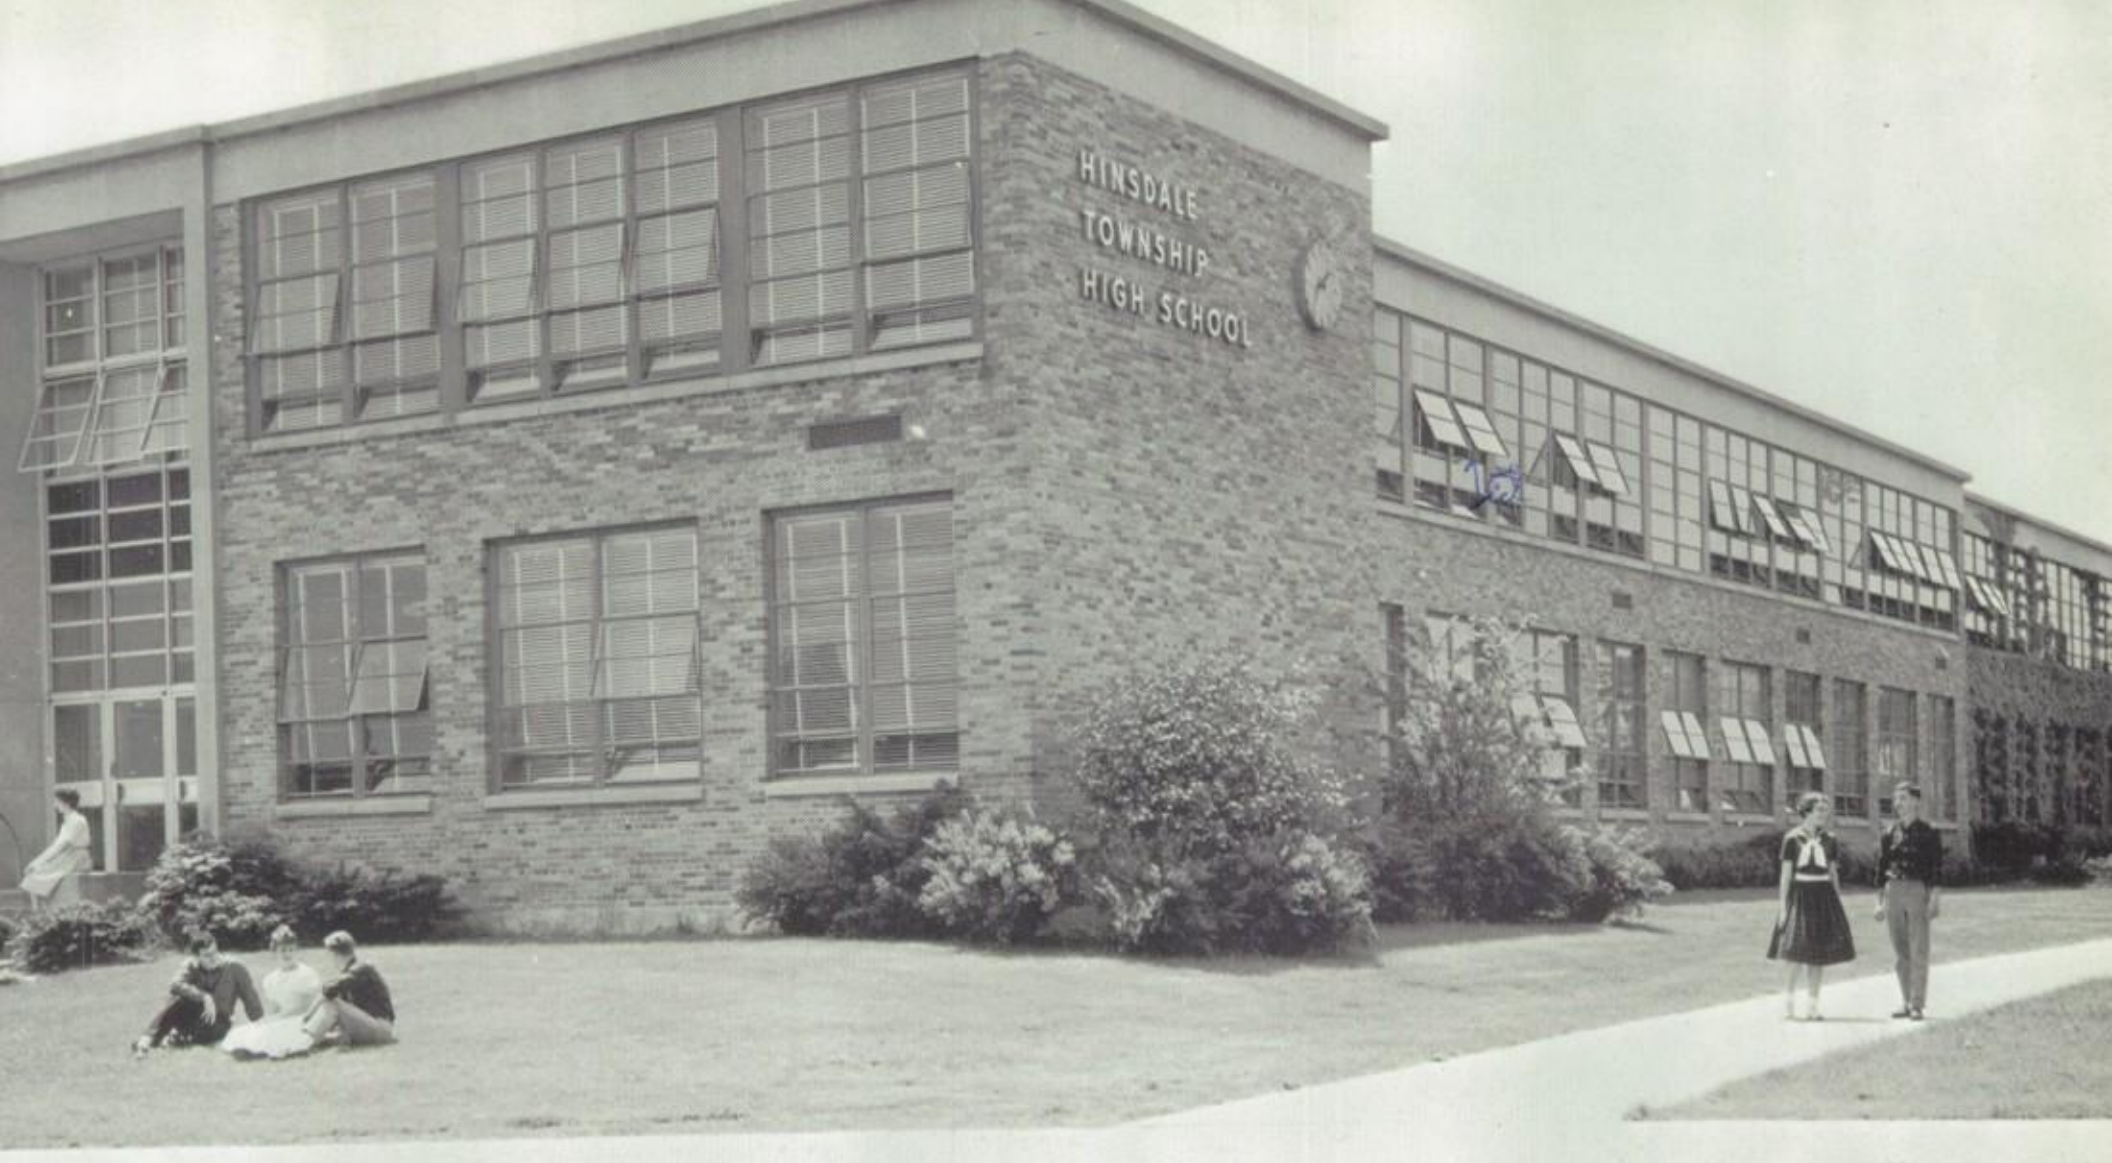

Act II: Act II is played out in the athletic fields and inside in the gymnasiums, swimming pool, and wrestling rooms. Excellent performances are given by the members of the varsity, frosh-soph, and freshman teams for all sports. This act captures the interest and enthusiasm of the audience.

Act III: The most important act, Act III, is set in the classrooms and halls of H.T.H.S.

Scene I: The usual first season performance is given by the freshman class. Playing in situations ranging from algebra class to float-making, freshmen seem to fall naturally into the role. Several upperclass male leads have shown interest in certain members of the freshman cast, directing them and giving acting lessons from the cafeteria to the G. R. Formal.

Scene II: The sophomores have put individual interpretation into their roles and are especially dramatic in the emotion-packed Driver Education sequences. (They refuse to use stunt men or stand-ins.) Showing a tendency toward the classic school, the sophomores fill their scenes with quotations from Julius Caesar. They are especially brilliant at delivering geometric theorems.

Scene III: The junior class gives fine interpretations of American historical characters from Captain John Smith to Teddy Roosevelt. They are also excellent in portrayals of chemists and Edgar Allan Poe.

Scene IV: The climactic final scene is nobly acted by the seniors. This scene is full of action. Homecoming, the G. R. Formal, the Variety Show, the all-school play, the operetta, and the Prom are the major sequences. Brilliant character portrayals by seniors include interpretations of Beowulf and tragic renditions of Chaucer's Prologue. In an inspiring performance by an all-star cast, class day and graduation are outstanding moments.

Nearing the end of a four-year triumph, the members of the magnificent class of 1962 are assured of greater roles to come.

Hi Karen -
I'm sure that you've been some year.

An important part of H.T. is the Projector Club. Two operators and two alternates are selected from each study hall period. Under the guidance of Mr. Edward Dillard, the projectionists run films for different classes. Each regular operator receives one-half credit per year.

Projector Operators

Typical of the Audio-Visual materials shown by the projector operators in H.T. classes is the one above. Here four Chicagoland high school students look down into a model swimming pool atomic reactor, part of the new "Hall of Elements" at the Museum of Science and Industry. The exhibit, donated by Union Carbide Corporation, shows the interesting and significant uses of many of the chemical elements. It features a number of audience-operated displays and quizzes, and a demonstration area.

Cheerleaders

This year's Devil and Imp cheerleading squads, sponsored by Mrs. Mary Ann Reeder and Miss Jacqueline Ryan respectively, brought cheers full of pep and school spirit to H.T.'s student body. Neither rain nor shine nor cold weather could keep them away from the sidelines of every football and basketball game.

This year's Devil squad consisted of Sandy Strehlow, captain; Paula Allman, co-captain; Terry Abernathy, Helen Farrell, Marcia Haase, and Karen Shaw. Jane Haven and Kathy Devos were the alternates.

This year's Imp squad included Diane Dickinson, captain; Cheri Standen, co-captain; Nancy Johnston, Carol Skeels, Patricia Meyer, and Sally Sexton. The freshman alternates were Susie Schroder and Linda Hoff.

On October 21, about 10:00 A.M., floats from various H.T. organizations, based on the theme "Civil War Centennial," paraded through the main streets of Hinsdale. Later that day, H.T.'s teams, backed by the student body, met Glenbard on the football field for a Frosh-Soph tie and a Varsity victory. Between the two games, the winning floats, judged by the class of '51, paraded around the field. A slight accident, when the junior class float toppled over in front of the speaker's stand, added to an afternoon that will always be remembered. The day was concluded with the annual Homecoming dance, "An Evening at Tara," sponsored by Varsity Club, and the crowning of the queen, Paula Allman. Her attendants were Karen Shaw and Marcia Haase. Her court consisted of Sandy Strehlow, Terry Abernathy, Kathy DeVos, and Jane Haven.

Varsity Football

The 1961 Red Devils football squad, directed by Harvey Dickinson and his assistants, Jack Stickels, Dale Foster, and Dick Miller, captured the West Suburban Championship Crown with an 8—0 record and were ranked as one of the top two teams in the State.

The Devils opened the season by defeating New Trier 33—0. In Conference play, the Big Reds beat R-B 45—6, York 20—0, Maine 41—7 and Downers Grove 33—6 to retain the Old Oaken Bucket. The Homecoming crowd saw the Devils trounce Glenbard 45—0 and La Grange 25—6. Arlington was the Devils' final victim, falling 28—6.

Fullback Pete Hambrick was elected Most Valuable Player while being second in Conference scoring. All-Conference selections were Hambrick, Ken Boston, Doug Fuller, Pete Chilstrom, also rated All-State guard, Bob Haarlow, Bob Vogt, and Norbert Chesta. Other outstanding players were Herb Feris, Greg Johnston, John McMillan, Dave O'Dell, Jerry Vicha, Hilary Walendy, and Bill Zillman.

The purpose of GAA is to encourage athletic activity and to promote good sportsmanship. GAA provides an after-school sports program open to all girls at H.T. GAA sponsors concessions at all home football games and many social activities, which include a bonfire and a box supper. The 1961-1962 officers were Sandy Montgomery, president; Sue Smith, vice-president; Teena Erickson, treasurer; Janet Erdman, secretary; Ann Speer, social chairman; Judy Smith, art chairman; Pam Blanken, point chairman; Nancy Cox and Pam Putnam, publicity chairmen; and Jeri Montgomery and Joanne Waitkus, food chairmen.

G.A.A. . . . Physical Education Leaders

This year, a new program was introduced in the girls' physical education department. Instead of a one-year course in training girls for leadership in P.E. classes, a two-year preparatory course was started. The first year is concentrated on developing skills, while the second year is used for the practice of instructing others. Leaders are chosen on their leadership ability and their academic grades. After these girls have been trained, their senior year is devoted to assisting the physical education teachers.

The Frosh-Soph Grapplers, directed by Coach Chuck Schrader, had rough competition in the opening half of the 1961-62 season and had posted a 1—5 Conference record and a 4—8 season sub-total when this copy went to press. Their Conference victory came over Glenbard West.

The outstanding wrestlers were Dave Lee, undefeated in 11 meets, and Jon Weck, who held a 7—3—1 record.

Frosh-Soph Wrestling

The Freshman Wrestling Squad, coached by Mr. Gerry Rutter, was handicapped by injuries the first part of the season, and on February 1st, held a 1—8 record. The squad defeated Glenbard West but lost a number of close meets.

Outstanding wrestlers were Ron Sutcliffe, John Bowman, Tony Turek, Bob Elgin, Dexter Wright, and Dave Harry.

SENIOR CLASS OFFICERS: D. Wilson, D. Pierce.

Those Wonderful Years

The officers of the class of 1962 were Dave Wilson, president; Denis Pierce, vice-president; Linda Mahin, secretary; Bill Dean, treasurer; Natalie Winzler and Pete Burns, social chairmen; and Ann Harding, member-at-large. Walt Lindsay headed the 1961-62 Student Council. Craig Thatcher, as an American Field Service American Abroad, represented both the class of '62 and HTHS in Indonesia during the summer of 1961.

The seniors have seen many changes in the school since they arrived as freshmen in 1958. The enrollment has grown from eighteen hundred to twenty-three hundred (Think of all those extra freshmen!); the entire west and south wings were added; the language laboratory was installed; the administration building, the swimming pool, and the auditorium were built; the courtyard was landscaped (Remember those trucks driving across the hall?); the library was enlarged, IBM grade reports were mailed for the first time when the seniors were freshmen; and the sophomore year was enlivened by the reversal of the grading scale. Innovations by the senior class included a senior square dance and the class bulletin board, '62 in View.

Some things haven't changed, however, such as UT, detentions, PA announcements, semester exams, football and basketball games, Homecoming, the G.R. Formal, the operetta, the variety show . . .

1958—1962, those wonderful years!

B. Dean, L. Mahin, N. Winzler, A. Harding, P. Burns.

The Senior Advisers is a group of seniors who willingly give their time to help incoming freshmen become better acquainted with H.T.

At the beginning of the year the Senior Advisers show freshmen around the school and inform them of the extra-curricular activities. Later in the year they meet with freshmen to discuss grades and colleges. Senior Advisers are always there to help freshmen with any problems that they might have. This group is sponsored by Mr. David Hunt.

SENIOR ADVISERS Chairmen Linda Mahin and Craig Thatcher.

National Merit Scholarship Semi-Finalists

NATIONAL MERIT SCHOLARSHIP SEMIFINALISTS: Michael Broome, Susan Curtis, Judith Wiltse, Robert Mullen.

The National Merit Scholarship Test, taken by members of the Class of 1962, is a three-hour exam in the educational development and college aptitude of high school students. It is a test of applying facts to situations, rather than a test of the facts themselves.

A group of semi-finalists is chosen according to the state quota. Then, the finalists are chosen on the bases of school records, recommendations, other test scores, extracurricular and outside interests and accomplishments, and other indications indicating future success. Each semi-finalist receives a certificate of merit. Four-year scholarships are awarded to the finalists.

I really don't know what to say since I have such as the impediment. It really has been a great year. Frankly, I think we were the greatest in the op-eretta. I really think you are charming in cybus their-thicker the parade. I've never forget those parties. Mike is a royal "F.F." Be good if you possibly can. Don't work too hard. Try to get better acquainted with "F.F." Have fun etc. (how trite)

Dear K,

God, where do I begin, we've been through sooo much together. The zoo, museum,
Queen of Heaven Mausoleum, your Basement (Rogue's)
Living room, Private Kitchen, your "Organ", McDonalds, Lance, The Kids, Our Kids!
I have never had "HONESTLY" sooo much fun with any girl. Good Clean fun. You, your newly aquired Blue Baby, your Parents, your unwanted Organ, Man! Hope we still have our group & Cemetery Pictures, until then to use an old saying,

I'll Be seeing you,
Love
Bill.

Karen: this man, this has seen a year I'll never forget! especially of those parties and all of our cool parties and all of and I'll never forget our summer parties - what a roar!!! And all of our I'll never forget them!!
well, Karen, have another fun summer and I hope I'll be seeing you in one of the shows.
Love,
Cheri

See Karen,

I don't know to what or whom I owe the privilege of being the first, the absolute first to sign your El Diario. Due to the adverse conditions of which I am undergone, my writing is très pour. Well, I'm glad I could help out in our Big Brother Campaign. Boy, now I'll never touch another ball of yarn. Cindy, Malinda and I are your faithful workers - man what a bunch of kids. I'll never forgive you for that party one whole week before my birthday. See thanks for the stop and go light - who needs a set of directions. Man, did we have an absolute riot in the Variety Show - not really in the show but razzing N.E.C.V.M.H. about sweatshirts. Man even if the judging was fixed, we still made all the little people laugh. Now that (most of our) love-lives are going strong I can relax. Please, no more Dear Abbies. I'm still busy on CH who has just joined the Metropolitan Opera, with so much crap he can sing Figaro. Well, guess what's on June 8 (Smudgie's dog's birthday). Eight days left of school left -- then it's my turn to chauffeur (chawfUR) (hey FF [fortissimus]) just went by Linda (fixe Mercury) you all all around town, the shit shop, Dops, Dops, (bottoms) and onto a certain house, on a certain street, named after a certain President, in a certain locale. If you knew what I mean. Well all I have today is that Brush Hill this summer is going to be a blast if we can get Kerre, the Smudgies, and Big Brother in some of the summer productions. Dan could be the wizard in Once Upon a Mattress - ha. Well you have a lead, darrr. Maybe you can talk Kob into giving me Princess #12. Well, here's hoping all goes well. Avee amicus and anything else that courts. Please see page 8.

Karen,
 in your dance
 the ~~opera~~ absolute was an stopper, a real riot!
 I don't think I'll ever forget your variety show act,
 and I know I'll always remember that 12 hour summer party. ~~thank~~ I don't think I'll be able to you enough for your friendship.
 Pam

To my partner in Crypt. Best of native soul to you! I'll meet you at Transylvania Col.
